

Bio – Charlie Hall

Charlie was born and raised in York, South Carolina. He attended the US Military Academy at West Point and graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in environmental science in 2001. He was commissioned into the U.S. Army in June 2001 and completed an inter-service transfer to the U.S. Marine Corps in November 2002. He served as an active duty officer in the USMC until May 2006, deploying to Iraq in 2004 with 2nd Reconnaissance Battalion, Camp Lejeune, NC.

Charlie moved to Greenville, South Carolina in May 2006 and began work in the civilian sector at Harper Corporation — General Contractors — and the USMC Reserves until August 2009. He served on active duty as the District Injured Support Coordinator for the states of South Carolina and Georgia with the Marine Corps's Wounded Warrior Regiment from 2009 to 2014, while volunteering with Upstate Warrior Solution in its formative years.

In addition to being the current President of Upstate Warrior Solution, Charlie continues to serve in the US Marine Corps Reserve. Additionally, he serves as a volunteer in the following capacities:

- Chair, Greenville Non-profit Alliance Connection Point Committee
- Chair, Upstate Veterans Alliance Network, a Community Veteran Engagement Board (CVEB)
- Member, United Way of Greenville County Behavioral Health Task Force
- Member, Piedmont United Way Behavioral Health Task Force
- Member, Prisma Healthcare Neurological Services Advisory Committee
- Member, VA Secretary's Advisory Committee on Homeless Veterans (Federal appointee)
- Rotary Club of Greenville

He and his wife Elizabeth live in Greenville and have three children.
